Town of Los Altos Hills
Committee Meeting Teleconference Instructions
March 10th, 2020

Overview:

Committee members and members of the public who wish to attend committee meetings during the coronavirus outbreak are allowed and encouraged to attend remotely via Zoom technology in order to facilitate social distancing. At this time, committee members and members of the public are also still allowed to attend in person at the meeting site (as specified on the agenda), if preferred, until further notice. Executive order by Governor Newsom has lifted Brown Act restrictions to make this easier. For more on the governor's order, see:
